SEASON OF EASTERN RACING OPENED ON JAMESTOWN TRACK

First Day's Card Is Run in Presence of 3,000 People, With Fine Prospect for Remainder of Meet--David Dunlop's Takahira Wins.

Norfolk, Va., April 1.—Eastern racing opened at the Jamestown track to-day. Three thousand people were present. It now seems assured that Norfolk will take the place made vacant by the withdrawal of Bannings from the racing map.

It was a good day for favorites, and the public found it interesting in the last race, playing the horse heavily at even money. Bethlehem, in the fifth, opening at 40 to 1, attracted a lot of speculation, and odds on him were forced down to as low as 12 to 1. Word was got out that the gelding was a good thing, but he was numbered among the also rans. David Dunlop's Takahira lasted long enough in the fifth to beat Hyperion II. under the wire by a nose. One jump further and the aged Hatfield gelding would have named him. Summaries:

First race—five furlongs, purse—$100. King, 112 (Gaines), 6 to 1, first; Dorris Ward, 109 (Hare), 5 to 1, second; May Weed, 109 (Lang), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 3/5. Aunt Lena and Jack Ryan also ran.

Second race—four furlongs, purse—$100. King, 112 (Gaines), 6 to 1, first; Dorris Ward, 109 (Hare), 5 to 1, second; May Weed, 109 (Lang), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 3/5. Aunt Lena and Jack Ryan also ran.

Third race—one mile and a sixteenth, purse—$100. King, 112 (Gaines), 6 to 1, first; Dorris Ward, 109 (Hare), 5 to 1, second; May Weed, 109 (Lang), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:49 2/5. Flat Creek ran.

Fourth race—six and a half furlongs, purse—$100. King, 112 (Gaines), 6 to 1, first; Dorris Ward, 109 (Hare), 5 to 1, second; May Weed, 109 (Lang), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:49 2/5. Flat Creek ran.

Fifth race—five and a half furlongs, purse—$100. King, 112 (Gaines), 6 to 1, first; Dorris Ward, 109 (Hare), 5 to 1, second; May Weed, 109 (Lang), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:49 2/5. Flat Creek ran.

BIG GALLERY WILL WITNESS CONTEST

Final 36-Hole Match in United North and South Tournament.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Pinehurst, N. C., April 1.—In the face of yesterday's brilliant play, to-day's semi-final rounds in the tenth annual United North and South golf championship seemed rather tame, in spite of the fact that one contest was carried to the twentieth hole, three to the nineteenth and four each to the home green, in the short seventeenth.

In the championship division, upon which the interest is centered, Walter J. Travis, of Garden City, won from Allan Lard, of Chevy Chase, four up and three to play, and W. R. Tuckerman, of Chevy Chase, defeated J. P. Gardner, of Midlothian, three up and two to play.

No match here has ever been more keenly anticipated than to-morrow's thirty-six hole final between the winners, for both players are in record form. In this connection it is interesting to note that Mr. Travis's qualification round of 147 was practically duplicated by Mr. Tuckerman in the final match of the recent club championship. The match starts to-morrow morning at an hour suited to the gallery, and several hundred people will follow its progress.

In the consolation division, upon which the interest is centered, Walter J. Travis, of Garden City, won from Allan Lard, of Chevy Chase, four up and three to play, and W. R. Tuckerman, of Chevy Chase, defeated J. P. Gardner, of Midlothian, three up and two to play.

BALL GAME LIKE AMERRY-GO-ROUND

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Chapel Hill, N. C., April 1.—It was all Demott today. Speed, control, curves, head work and everything else that goes into the make-up of a great pitcher were with the big Pennsylvanian this afternoon. With not a single defeat to his credit, Demott was saved from last Monday to use his full strength for a second time in the series with Carolina. Stewart also pitched a good game, pulling out of several bad holes, and keeping his hits well scattered.

Lafayette won in the first. Kelley flew to center, and on an error went to third. Williams and Conover were out, pitcher to first. On Demott's infield hit, Kelley scored.

Carolina lost her only good chance to score in the eighth. Buie singled, stole second and went to third on Tiller's sacrifice. Bivens hit a slow grounder to second, and Buie, with a probable chance of scoring, was held at third. Buie was later caught at the plate, by hardly a hair's breadth. Hamilton played a strong first, and received a terrific blow over the eye from one of Stewart's benders and was replaced by Aitschler.

UNIVERSITY AGAIN LOSES TO AMHERST

Virginia Players Make Fourteen Errors--Game Is Sixth Successive Defeat--Witmer Pitched Steady Ball Until Seventh Inning.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., April 1.—Virginia lost her sixth successive game to-day, Amherst winning by the one-sided score of 15 to 2. For seven innings the contest was interesting, despite the many errors made by the Virginia players. Up to that season Witmer had outpitched Vernon, the Amherst twirler, not an earned run having been made by the visitors.

A brisk shower began falling at the opening of the seventh, and the Virginia twirler lost control of the wet ball. As a result, Amherst connected for eight hits in succession, which, together with the errors, netted ten runs.

The first five runs made by Amherst were due in the main to the wretched fielding of Baird, who made his debut at second base. Hume, varsity outfielder for the past two years, made his first appearance of the season under more favorable circumstances. The first time up he lined out a beautiful single, and immediately pliffed second and third. Lie started with the stick, getting a single, double and triple.

For Amherst, Pennock, Henry and Kane fielded sharply, and the two first named batted opportunely. McClure will pitch for Amherst to-morrow against the Navy.

ROANOKE COLLEGE TEAM LOSES GAME

Visitors Outplayed at All Stages by Christian College Club.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., April 1.—The Virginia Christian College team this afternoon threw a bomb into the camp of the Roanoke College, of Salem, when the Christians bested the Salem team by the score of 5 to 3. The visitors were outplayed at all stages, for the hitting of the Christians was more timely, and there was no comparison in the fielding. Vaughn, who started for the Lutherans, lasted until he got the bases full in the third, and then Jackson, the Greensboro (Carolina Association) player, who is coaching the Salem team, went to the box, but he could not stop the locals.

The fine coaching of Player Owen Jackson, of the Lynchburg team, is telling, for the V. C. C. now has five straight victories to his credit without a defeat. Roanoke College recently defeated St. Johns, who beat Virginia.
